Become
a Corporate Partner

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Cornwall and District

Change
A Child's Life

6 Unique Ways You can Get Involved — Inspire Kids to Be Great!

1

Volunteer

We're looking for adult volunteers to meet with a child in need of a mentor and friend at a local elementary school near your workplace. The program requires a commitment of 1 hour a week during the school day/year on the school grounds. BBBSC staff with conduct all the necessary recruitment, screening, and will match each volunteer on an ongoing basis.

2

Event Participation

BBBSC needs skilled, energetic and motivated volunteers to come out to assist us at our events

3

Team Fundraising

BBBSC hosts fun and engaging team fundraising opportunities throughout the year. Get your workplace involved, your employees motivated, and form teams to participate in Bowl for Kids Sake.

Why Partner?

Your Company

- Excellent opportunity for team building
- Maximize your corporate, social, and community goals
- Enhance your company profile

Our Children & Youth

- 2x More likely to thrive academically
- 78% feel more confident
- 48% less likely to have behavior problems in school

4

Host an Event

Host a team building Event with your colleagues. Our community partners think up great ideas for organizing fundraising events. From office raffles, to holiday parties, to golf tournaments, there are a variety of ways to create a fun event while giving back.

5

Sponsorship

BBBSC hosts a number of fundraising events, all of which offer various levels of sponsorship, networking and branding opportunities that reach a diverse an prestigious demographic. Your workplace also has the opportunity to sponsor BBBSC programs, whether it be school, site or community based.

6

Matching Gifts

"Employer Matching" gift support, either tied to hours of employee volunteerism or to employee donations, has a significant impact on our ability to serve the children and youth on our wait list.

$1 Invested in BBBSC provides a Social Return on Investment of $18—$23.

Based on The Boston Consulting Group's SROI Study 2013

Get Involved!

For more information, contact::

613-933-8035 or email us at cornwall@bigbrothersbigsisters.ca

Start Something... that will change the life of a child.

Cornwall.bigbrothersbigsisters.ca